All manuscripts should be submitted in duplicate, typed on one side of good quality A4 paper, double spacing with a 2 in. left margin. Submit accepted manuscripts and the article in a diskette (3.5 in.) created on 'Microsoft Word'.

Text formatting and layout of this journal is being done on the Macintosh System 8.5 using Aldus Page Maker 6.5 program. Therefore, if your article is typed using the IBM PC or compatibles, please save your typed article on Microsoft Word for Windows: version 6.0 or earlier versions. The type or font used for the typed article sent is preferably Times or Times New Roman.

The text of the manuscript should be in the following form:

Title page: A concise but informative full title plus key words of not more than 40 characters, name(s) of author(s) and the full address where the work was carried out.

Abstract: The second page should contain an abstract of about 150-200 words. The abstract should state the purpose of the study, a brief description of the procedures employed, main findings and principal conclusions.

Text: The text should consist of an introduction, materials and methods, results, discussion, acknowledgement(s) and references. All pictures, table, figures, graphs & biological based diagrams should not be scanned. Original pictures, tables, figures, graphs & biological based diagrams must be submitted using JPEG. The manuscript will be rejected if JPEG is not used.

Statistics: When statistical significance is attributed, cite the specific method of analysis and use the upper case italic P (p<0.05).

Drugs: Generic names should be used in text, tables, and figures. Trade names in upper case may be mentioned in parentheses in the first text references to the drug but should not appear in titles, figures, or tables. The chemical nature of new drugs must be given when it is known. The form of drug used in calculations of doses (e.g., base or salt) should be indicated in Method.

Abbreviations: When an abbreviation is to be used in the manuscript, it is to be defined in the text the first time it is used. Abbreviation for commonly used substances should be those recommended by the Journal of Biological Chemistry. Abbreviation for drugs/chemical or generic name when the abbreviation is first used. Excessive use of abbreviation in the text, however, is strongly discouraged. Most abbreviation are used without punctuation, with no distinction between singular and plural form. The abbreviation, or their properly prefixed multiples or submultiples (e.g., kg, g, mg, mg, ng, pg), listed here may be used without definition in text, tables, and figures.

References: Number references consecutively in the order in which they are first mentioned in the text. References in the text should be indicated by a figure within parenthesis. References cited only in tables or in legends to figures should be numbered according to a sequence established by the first identification in the text of the particular table or illustration. Use the references adopted by the US National Library of Medicine and used in Index Medicus. The titles of journals should be abbreviated according to the style used by Index Medicus.

Personal communications, unpublished data or articles published without peer review, including materials appearing in programs in programs of meeting or in organizational publications, should not be included.

Authors are responsible for the accuracy of their references. Format and punctuation is shown in the following examples.

1) Journal
Names of all authors should be listed.

A full reference must be provided and included in the reference list all reprinted figures. Arabic numbers must be used to designed figures and tables, and all figures and tables must be cited in numerical order in the text. Clear glossy photographs should be submitted unmouted in quadruplicate; the figure number, first author’s name, and an indication of the top should be written lightly on the back of each with a soft pencil. Figures that are submitted in color will be published in black & white. One set of illustrations should be designated “set for publication”.

Figure Legend: Type double-spaced on a separate page and number consecutively. Identify all legends. A key must be included in the appropriate legend for any symbols or abbreviations appearing in an illustration. Credit for any previously published illustration must be given in the corresponding legend as follows: (From, Watson CB, Reierson N, Norfelect EAL. Clinically significant muscle weakness induced by dantrolene sodium prophylaxis for malignant hyperthermia. Anesthesiology, 1986; 65:312-314). Include this reference in the reference list.

Tables: Type on separate pages, number consecutively, and add a brief, descriptive title. Abbreviations are not permitted in tables titles, and any abbreviations(s) used in the body of the table, including dashes must be defined in a footnote to the table.

Copyright permission to reproduce materials published elsewhere in the manuscript. All author(s) will be required to sign a Declaration on acceptance of the manuscript.

DISK SUBMISSION

A comprehensive version of these guidelines for the submission of manuscripts and illustrations on disk can be accessed online under http://www.medic.usm.my/publication/mjms or requested as a leaflet from the editorial department.

Technical Information

Store only data pertinent to this manuscript. Include your fonts (screen and printer fonts for Macintosh). For a text only manuscript, use a 3.5-inch disk. For text and illustrations, CD-ROM (DOS or hybrid). Compress extensive data using ZIP format.

Data Description

Label your disk with the title of the journal or book for which it is submitted; a short version of the paper’s title; your name, postal and e-mail address, fax and phone number, hard and software used, including the version; and the complete list of the file names. File names consist of eight characters before the dot identifying the file and three characters after the dot identifying the application.

Text and Format

The preferred word-processing package is MS-Word. Other commonly used PC text programs and ASCII formats are accepted. Update your data when you revise subsequent to the reviewer’s or editor’s decision and mark revisions clearly. Manuscripts accepted for publication are subject to copy editing; changes and/or questions will be retured to you with your disk and the galley proofs for checking. Enter your text continuously flush left. Do not use any layout functions. Do not split words at the end of a line. Do not use indentations. Use a blank line before and a hard return at the end of paragraphs. Arrange headings flush left. Insert only one space after punctuation marks. Insert Greek letters, mathematical symbols etc. with your word-processing program. Use boldface and italics as well as sub- and superscript where appropriate. Tables are part of the text and should be placed at the end of the text file. Separate the individual parts of a table by lines. Use the tabulator instead of spaces. Format operation data on one line in the same column. Legends to illustrations are part of the text and should also be listed at the end of the text file.

Illustrations

Store illustrations as separate files: do not integrate them in your text. Export line drawings/vector graphics as TIF, EPS or JPEG format. Use Photo-shop for processing and retouching scanned halftone images. Save the original scan and the processed version. Export black and white or color images as TIF or EPS format in their anticipated size in print.
